

Microsoft Office Specialist Exams Passed

Southeast Community College has a grant so that SCC students can take Microsoft Office Specialist exams in PowerPoint, Access, Word, and Excel. Many Business students take these exams and they are currently free of charge until all the vouchers are used under the grant. At that time, students would need to pay to take the exams.

